DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (If known) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

Located in mid-block with a vacant lot to the right, this flat roofed rowhouse is three stories high and three bays wide; it is surfaced in running bond brick, although the ground floor has been altered for commercial purposes.

A flat roofed clapboard shed, extending from the center of the ground floor facade, houses the rectangular door on its left side. The end bays contain fixed pane rectangular windows of one over one lights. A wooden entablature tops the ground floor, supported on either side by wooden posts and brackets.

An intricate white cast iron railing rests on the entablature, and three tall double hung rectangular windows of six over six lights with flat arched brick lintels complete the second story facade. Similar windows, with four over four lights define the third story facade.

A wooden cornice tops the structure. Attached to the right of the ground floor is a one story wooden shack entered from Chase Street.
